PAPER-6

SECTION - A

❖ Read the extracts and answer the questions: (10)

- In 1896, I moved onto the Cambridge School for Young Ladies in Massachusetts. This was really a great achievement for a lady like me who was blind, deaf and could barely produce sounds for communication. I began writing poems and stories. Shortly before my examination, I lost my father. Although emotionally disturbed, I did my best in the examination. My teacher could not accompany me to the examination hall. There a teacher spelled out the questions in my hand and I typed out the answers. When the result was declared, I was so full of joy to hear that I had passed all the subjects.
- (1) Why was moving to the Cambridge School a great achievement for Helen?
  - (2) Why was Helen disturbed before the exam?
    - Shukraeharya was sorry for his daughter and angry with the asurs who killed his disciple under his care. At Devayani's request, he began summoning kach back from death.

Kach answered in a low voice from his stomach. "I am Kach," he was killed by the asurs, who burnt my body and mixed the ashes with divine wine that you have drunk. Be gentle to me, O my master. Consider me as your son as I am now part of you."
  - (3) Where was Kach?
  - (4) What did Kach request Shukarcharya?
    - A lady: Hello everyone, I am Mrs Suhani Mehta. I am not sure whom to ask this question. I am facing a different problem. My daughter seems to be enjoying her studies but hardly shares anything on what happen at school and her studies. As parents, we try to ask her so many times, but she avoids discussing the school at home Anuj.

Anuj: I think, we should consult Dr Mackey as he must have faced similar questions from British parents back home.

Dr Mackey: Thank you, Anuj.

I hope I am audible over there. And yes, I like this question. If sharing is missing, both children and parents are responsible. Sharing is the glue that binds a family together generally, adolescents at this age find it uncomfortable to share all details related to their lives. As parents, we must consider this and decide our response to their sharing. Our negative response and preaching discourage children. However, children must read the intention of parents. Not sharing anything may lead to serious problems.

- (5) Who is responsible if sharing is missing?
- (6) What doesn't help children in sharing?
  - A girl passed by him, and Lieutenant Blandford looked closely. She was wearing a flower, but it was a white rose. He was to recognize his friend by a red rose. Besides, this girl was only about eighteen, and Meynell had told him she was thirty.

- (8) How old was Meynell?
  - Shubhangi : Didi, who builds a nest, the male bird or the female bird?

Devangi: Male weaver birds build nests. It takes nearly 18 days to complete nest building. When the nest is half completed, the male invites the female for pairing by its song. If she accepts the nest, both of them finish the nest. If she doesn't, the nest is abandoned. Shubhangi: Then it must be very difficult for the male to build more than one nests.

Devangi :Yes, absolutely right. A male often makes many nests during the nesting season.
- (9) How long does it take to complete the nest?
- (10) What happens if the female weaver bird does not accept the nest?
